

A new digital international logistics service platform. Built on a robust global logistics and transportation network and excellent IT capabilities, it covers over 300 ports worldwide and 68 service outlets across the country. It provides cross-border sellers and foreign trade enterprises with convenient and reliable digital international logistics services.